

WHY SPORTS?

Because a trained coach is one of the most influential adults in a young person's life. In fact, coaches who are trained in positive youth development inspire youth to:

improve their grades and stay
in school

work as a team
and set goals

be physically
healthy

make smart
choices about
drugs and alcohol

learn conflict
resolution skills,
reducing violent
behavior