WHY SPORTS?

Because a trained coach is one of the most influential adults in a young person’s life. In fact, coaches who are trained in positive youth development inspire youth to:

- improve their grades and stay in school
- work as a team and set goals
- be physically healthy
- make smart choices about drugs and alcohol
- learn conflict resolution skills, reducing violent behavior